Keep Them Away from The Bible at All Cost

RE: That Wretched Book!

One of your most important tasks, as demons of hell, is to do whatever it takes to keep Christian students from the Bible! The Bible is called the “sword of the Spirit.” It is the only offensive weapon for Christians listed in the armor of God in Ephesians 6:10-17. Fortunately for us, most Christians don’t read or apply the Bible to their lives—and are therefore weaponless! Even fewer Christians bother to take the time and effort to memorize Bible verses! THIS IS SO GOOD FOR US! However, if one of the Christian students under your watch ever gets serious about reading, memorizing, and applying the Bible to his or her life—you can count on the fact that you, as a demon of Satan, will be in for some heavy losses! Our Enemy can snatch someone right out of our crooked, evil hands—if that person chooses to read and apply the Bible to his or her life! Such is the power of that wretched book!

In the temptation of Christ, our lord Satan himself was totally vanquished and humiliated by Jesus because three times Jesus quoted and applied Scripture to each temptation our evil lord threw at him (Matthew 4:1-11). OUCH! That wretched book is extremely dangerous to us! That book could ruin our plans for a Christian’s spiritual demise! The good news for us is that—according to recent polls—about 60 percent of those who call themselves Christians don’t even bother to read the Bible more than one or two days a week! How can they have a relationship with God if they don’t read the Bible? Answer: THEY CAN’T! No Bible = no sword = no threat to us! If you ever need something to make you smile so wide your forked tongue slips out of your mouth, simply picture this in your evil mind: A Christian without a sword! HAHHAHAHA! Sitting ducks for us—ALL of them!

I now offer a few pointers for you to use to keep Christian students from that wretched book:

1. Get them out of the habit of reading anything! Get them to spend hours watching TV, playing Gameboy or Play Station 2, using the computer and the Internet, or simply wasting their valuable time listening to and studying their favorite music groups—even Christian ones! (Note: This has proven to be quite effective!) I know there is nothing
